

DOES Fund	DOES NOT Fund
Type of Institution:
State, county, municipal, and tribal governments and organizations	Federal government entities
Public institutions like schools and libraries	For-profit companies and private businesses
University and college special collections and archives
Non-profit organizations
Type of Record
Family papers, manuscripts, organizational records	Artifact and object collections such as textiles, art, historical tools, etc.
Photograph collections including negatives, glass-plate negatives, print photos, tintypes, etc.	Records that are private and/or not available to researchers
Sound recordings, video tapes, and other electronic records	Records of appointed or elected public officials who have not left office or remain politically active
Unpublished architectural, cartographic, and engineering drawings	Records that are in the custody of the Federal government or could be considered Federal records
	Sheet music, art, other records considered primarily of entertainment value
	Newspapers and other published materials subject to copyright
Type of Project
Arrangement and description of archival records	Catalog, acquire, preserve books, periodicals, other library materials
Digitization for preservation and/or access	Purchase manuscripts or other historical records
Oral histories related to Native Americans	Oral histories not related to Native Americans
Historical research related to the editing of a documentary publication	Documentary research and publication of papers of someone deceased fewer than 10 years
Archival shelving, cabinets, and cases provided there is a preservation and access component to the project and the need is demonstrated immediately	Construction, renovation, purchase, or furnishing of a building or land
Type of Expense
Salaries and wages for work completed on project , including fringe benefits	Overhead and administrative costs (EXCEPT as part of cost-share/match)
Travel including per diem and lodging	Travel to professional meetings
Services such as printing, postage, equipment leasing, etc.	Lobbying and fundraising
Supplies such as archival boxes and folders	Subscriptions